Flexible & space-saving performance

With its full 36" width and counter-depth cabinet, the Hisense HQD20058SV takes up less of your kitchen while maximizing storage performance. The lower-right convertible compartment offers a -4 to 45°F temperature range for flexible food storage. Triple-Tech cooling controls each compartment's temperature with separate airflow. Benefits include increased humidity levels for refrigerated items, reduced frost for frozen items, along with minimized odor transfer between compartments. The full-width pantry drawer is perfect for larger items, like fresh pizzas and long sandwiches. With LED lighting and adjustable interior storage to customize organization, you'll always find what you're looking for.
